

NORTHALLERTON MARKET

Markets have been held on Northallerton High Street ever since the granting of market rights by the Crown to the Bishop of Durham in 1127. By 1975 weekly markets were being held on a Wednesday and Saturday between Zetland Steet and the Town Hall, a tradition that was instituted in the 1950's and which continues to this day.

1870

1880s

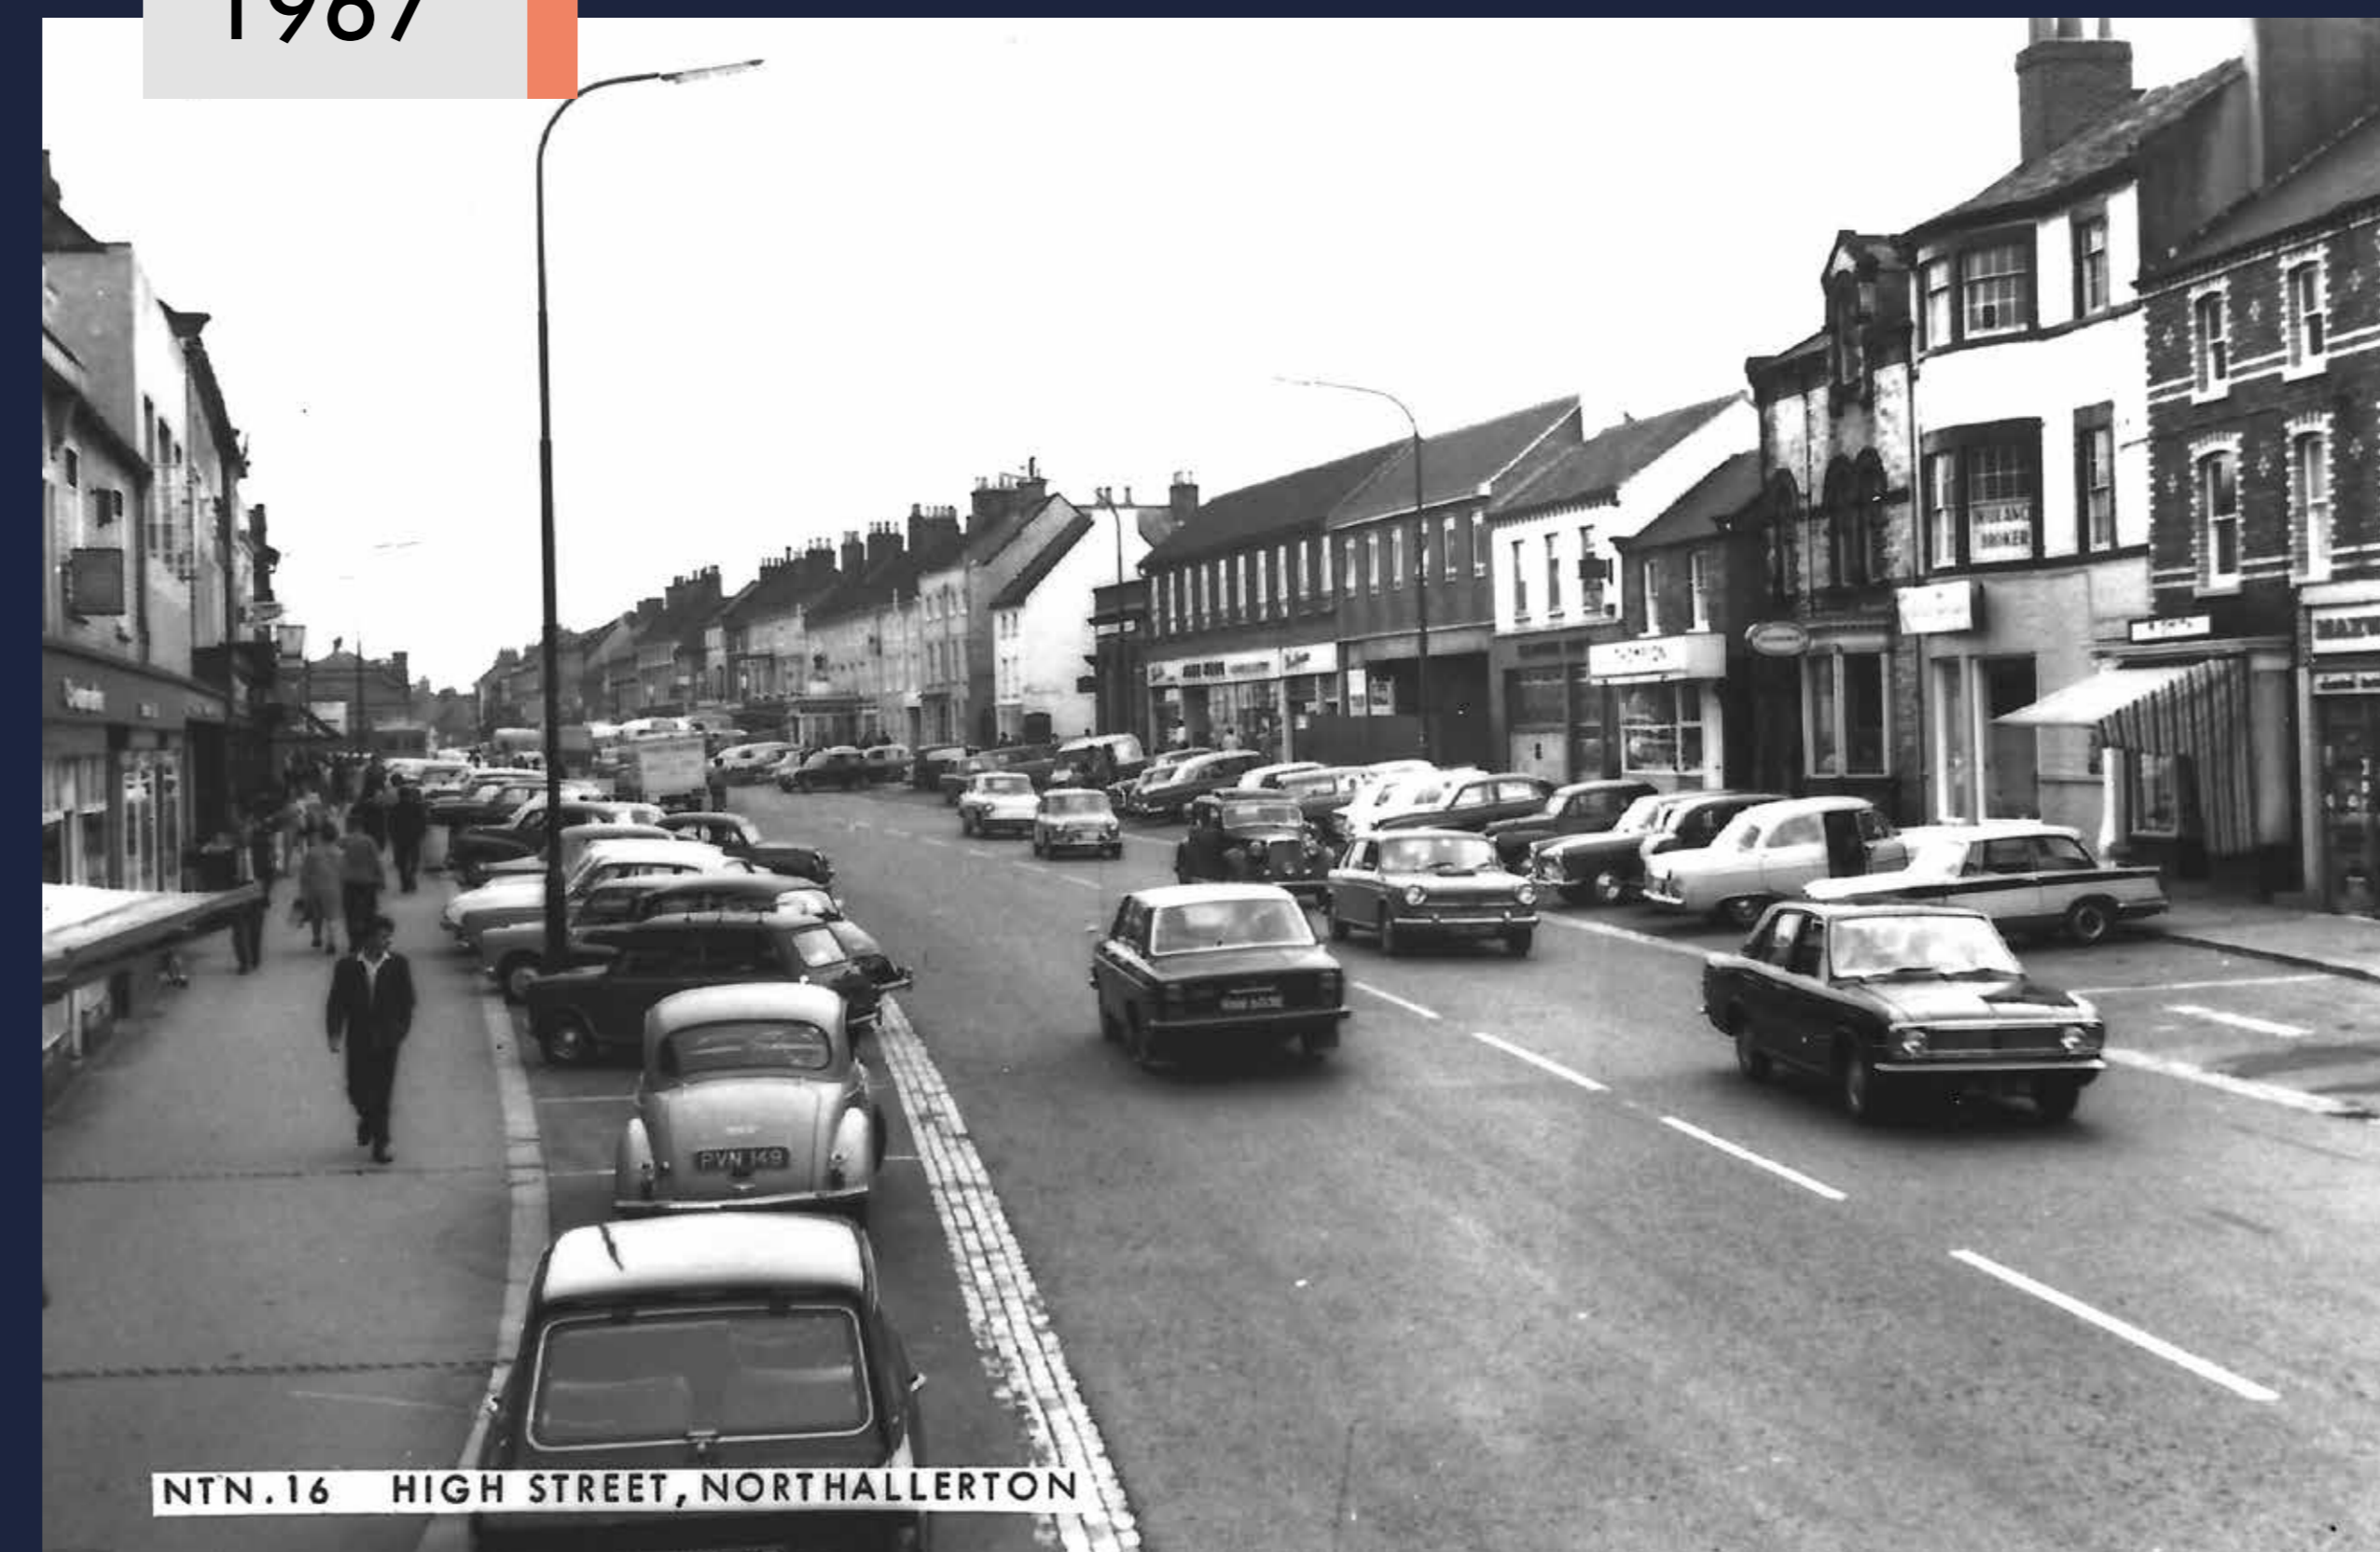

1930s

1950

1967

2022

